Woman's Club Celebrities Day Authors tell

By MARILYN MORRISON
News-Post Staff Writer

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club had the rare privilege of hearing four members of the literary world at their "Meet the Celebrities" luncheon meeting.

The program was under the auspices of the Literature department chairmaned by Mrs. Archie Wilson. Introduction of guests was handled by Mrs. Bruce G. McAbery, who had arranged the program.

The celebrities included Dorothy Westlake Andrews lecturer, teacher and author of "God's World and Johnny"; Virginia Brazier, reknown poetess, and Mildred and Gordon Gordon, husband and wife collaborators of entertainment novels.

Mrs. Andrews is a woman of great warmth and compassion and claims that everyone has a "story to tell." It is her feeling that the art of story telling needs to be rejuvenated. She suggested to all present that they take time to seek out the children within the realm of their love and attempt to engulf them with the beauty of God's world. A child, she further explained, is exposed to so much ugliness.

Her book "God's World and Johnny" has sold over a 1,000,000 copies and has been printed in four languages. She has written other books for children. She told the audience she is a compulsive author, doing her best works when "angry, emotional, or broke."

Poetess Virginia Brazier, Mrs. Charles Perlee, explained that she has cleared the deck (of her children), and now is writing nothing but poetry. She has written two volumes of poetry "Adam's Rib" and "Survival of the Unicorn," and in addition, has had over 5,000 of her works published. Unlike the first guest, her writing is on a planned schedule. To her, writing poetry takes infinite patience and careful planning "to put on paper what you want to say."

She delighted the audience with readings from "Survival of the Unicorn," a recent creation, "Pleasure Fair is Over"; and concluded with a soul searching work entitled "Starlift." She prefaced her last reading with the comment "a beautiful name for something hideous."

The husband and wife team of Mildred and Gordon Gordon captivated the audience with a fresh, crisp, presentation interspersed with bits of domestic humor.

Mrs. Gordon's serene countenance gave no hint as to the saucy wit she would use to explain how she edited herself into an author, and in doing so sentenced herself to 50 years at hard labor. She claims that writing is hard work and anything she writes is by accident, coupled with brute force.

Dapper Gordon Gordon expounded on the "task master techniques" he employs to keep the little author in line.

Together the Gordons have written fourteen novels, six of which have been made into movies. Their works have sold more than 10,000,000 copies and have been translated into thirteen languages. They are best known for "Undercover Cat" which became the Walt Disney movie "That Darn Cat."

Gordon explained that their books are not intended to deliver a social message, rather they are written to give their reader an opportunity to "cut themselves away." It is their desire to inspire charm and thrill their literary audience.

"MEET THE AUTHOR" luncheon was held at the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Jan. 24 and was presented by the Literature Department. Mrs. Bruce McAbery, program chairman, introduced the four authors, who spoke on their own work. Mrs. McAbery, who comes from Los Angeles for club days, originated this authors luncheon last year. It has proved so successful that it is hoped to make it an annual event. Shown here from left: Dorothy Westlake Andrews, Mildred and Gordon Gordon, Mrs. McAbery, Mrs. Archie Wilson, department chairman, and Virginia Brazier (Mrs. Charles D. Perlee).

Mrs. Archie L. Wilson, Literature Chairman for the Arcadia Women's Club chats with authors prior to the "Meet the Celebrities" luncheon held attended. Introductions were given by Mrs. Bruce McAbery. Following the program the authors autographed books available to the audience.

BIG DEAL for anyone who wants to brunch and go to the races, or brunch and play bridge next Wednesday. Name of the game is "Let's-Go-to-The-Races Champagne Brunch!" at Arcadia Women's Club. The foursome pictured above say come for brunch and champagne and go on to the races, we'd rather stay and play bridge and you're welcome to join us. They are, from left: Mrs. Frederick J. Adams, associate coordinator; Mrs. Eugene Rothenberger, club president; Mrs. Robert Smiley, second vice president, and Mrs. Bryan Smith. Mrs. Richard C. Nuthmann is chairman of the event.

Brunch at Club Before Races

"Let's Go To The Races Champagne Brunch," will be the theme for a social affair of the Women's Club of Arcadia. Mrs. Richard C. Nuthmann is planning a hearty brunch with champagne to set the mood for the occasion.

It will be held at the clubhouse, 324 S. First Ave., on Wednesday, Jan. 31 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Mrs. Eugene Rothenberger, president of the Women's Club of Arcadia, along with the members, are extending invitations to their husbands, friends and business associates to join them.

A special welcome is extended to the business men to stop in for breakfast or lunch. Tickets are $1.50.

Those planning to go to the races may enjoy a good brunch before posting their bets for the daily-double.

Tables will be set up for anyone who may want to join Mrs. Eugene Rothenberger, Mrs. Bryan Smith, Mrs. Frederick Adams and Mrs. Robert Smiley for an afternoon of bridge.

Tickets are available through Mrs. William Orr, 447-0221, Mrs. Harry Lauber, 335-6945, and Mrs. Ariel Hoegge, 446-0254. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Ganthers Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Charles) Ganther celebrated their "50 years together" at a golden wedding reception held at their home, 2045 South Sixth Ave., on Sunday, June 9. Their son, Willard, and his wife, assisted at the party.

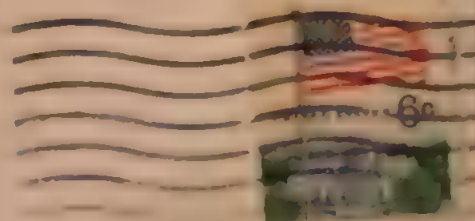

More than 150 friends attended the anniversary party. Mrs. Ganther wore a light blue silk and wool cocktail dress with a lace collar. The refreshment table held a collection of fruits, nuts and other refreshments, and a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with orange roses.

The couple bought property in Arcadia in 1914 and built their present home in 1916. Both have been active in community affairs. They served on the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Orchestra Board for years, and currently on the board of directors of the Arcadia Historical Society. Mrs. Ganther is an active member and a past president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia.

Caroline Gehard, a native of Illinois and Charles Ganther of San Diego were married in the First Lutheran Church of Los Angeles on June 9, 1918. They wedded long time close friends and

NEW FRIENDS TO MEET — And old friends to greet aptly describes the membership coffee of Woman's Club of Arcadia. On hand for annual event were, from left, Mrs. Eugene Rothenberger, president; Mrs. Jack Hargraves, Mrs. E. J. Fuerst, membership coffee chairman; Mrs. Dwight Jones, Mrs. Paul Mealon and Mrs. Harry Lauber, membership chairman. New members were identified by pink carnation corsages, the club's flower.

Woman's Club Has Annual Member Tea

The Woman's Club of Arcadia hosted its traditional membership coffee recently at the clubhouse.

"Old friends to greet; new friends to meet" aptly set the theme of the day. New members were identified by pink carnation corsages, the club's flower, symbolizing the club colors of pink and green.

A green cloth covered the serving table, centered with a green telephone and garlands of pink carnations extending to each end of the table. Active clubwomen find the telephone a useful and necessary utility.

Mrs. Robert Lane and Mrs. Carl Jennings presided at the registration table. Mrs. Ernest Fuerst was chairman of the serving committee, assisted by Mrs. Sydney Larkin and Mrs. Robert Keller.

New members greeted included Mrs. James Daly, Mrs. C. A. Simms, Mrs. Lilian Reaney, Mrs. Jack Hargraves, Mrs. Dwight Jones and Mrs. Paul Mealon.

Fiesta Party Plans Announced by Club

The Woman's Club of Arcadia will have a Fiesta Party at the clubhouse Saturday, Oct. 26.

The clubhouse will be decorated in keeping with the Fiesta theme and lighted torches will welcome guests at the entrance in time for the 6 p.m. "feliz hora."

Strolling musicians will add dinner, dancing and card games. Spanish costume is appropriate attire for the occasion, but not a requisite.

Tickets may be reserved through any member of the ways and means committee of the club.

Launching plans for the festivity is Mrs. Jack Mallon, chairman of the ways and means committee, with assistance of her committee.

Christine injected new interest and enthusiasm into club activities last spring as director and coordinator of a most successful style show and bridge luncheon, to which a capacity attendance responded.

She has been known from east to west coast as a fashion coordinator for some of the country's outstanding events, including the Woman's Pageant of Progress sponsored by the president of the Cook County Federation of Women's Club for the purpose of establishing a milk fund for the city of Chicago; the Westchester Parade given at the Westchester Biltmore Country Club and for the representatives of contemporary modes, with husband Jack Mallon staging the shows.

Mrs. Mallon has written for trade magazines and she and her husband worked together in producing style shows using models from their New York, Chicago and Hollywood Glamour Schools. Credit was given them for turning models for the movie production of the musical "P

Club Art Group Stages Craft Sale

Members and guests of the Woman's Club of Arcadia enjoyed an attractive setting for the sale of Southern and Western.

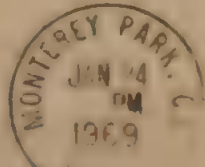

Small tables for the sale were arranged around the auditorium, and with an attractive cover and centered with a colorful banner.

The stage was a fine spot with a Christmas of holiday spirit and decorations of lights and garlands, and of food and drink.

The sale will be repeated November 1st, 1969, from the new home quarters of Arcadia Group of Southern and Western.

Miss Dorothy Lantier, a former chairman of the Art and Craft Department, presented the club an attractive artistic plant to decorate the auditorium stage of meeting at her home. She also presented the program of the day, demonstrating numerous and interesting displays of crafts.

Presidents from past share fete

Eighteen past presidents were honored at the November luncheon meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Club. The Arts and Crafts Department decorated the tables with turkeys, autumn leaves and tiny pine cones.

Each past president was greeted by a gift at her table place. Among those attending were Mmes. Ernest Fuerst, 1959-60; Eleanor Gibbs Knutson, 1958-59; Gene Rothenberger, 1967-69; Harry Lauber, 1965-66; John Ross, 1945-46; William Adams, 1957-58 and current vice president of Verdugo District; Clara Slattery, 1955-56; Alby Foym, 1961-62 current Family Living, Consumer Education and Family Finance chairman for Verdugo District; Harry Russell, 1944-45; Earl Dettra, 1954-55; Charles Ganther, 1950-51; Jessie Stewart, 1935-36 and 1937-38; Archie Wilson, 1956-57; Ray Young, 1946-47; William Greenway, 1966-67; Michael Erickson, 1963-64; William Orr, 1962-63 and Bruce Mc Abery, 1951-54.

Two new members were introduced, Mrs. King La Rocque and Mrs. Robert Andrus.

The business portion of the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Gilbert Starkenburg. Councilman Edward Butterworth spoke on the Tripolis Sister City Project and the program was presented by Richard Vetterli, teacher and lecturer from Pasadena City College who spoke on "The Making of a Hippie."

In Vetterli's opinion Hippies are frequently a product of a home situation in which there is a weak father and a domineering mother, permissive home environment, and the family trying to "keep up with the Joneses." Frequently these young people, and he comments "they are the same from Florida to California," have no spiritual values nor moral foundation.

Literature Group to Install New Officers

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will meet at the home of Mrs. Carlton H. Eckermann at 245 Arbolada Drive on Wednesday, May 28.

Following a short 11 a.m. business meeting at which Mrs. Bruce McAbery, retiring chairman, will preside, officers for 1969-1970 will be installed by Mrs. Archie Wilson, formerly of Arcadia and now a resident of Laguna Leisure World.

New officers include Mrs. Lyman G. Vollintine, chairman; Mrs. McAbery, program chairman; Mrs. Eckermann, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. James B. Goodwin, hospitality.

Past members of the literature department now residing at Laguna Leisure World who plan to accompany Mrs. Wilson to the installation include Mmes. Leonard Brooks, John Scull and Erick Stadig.

The program will be presented by Mrs. George Cornilius, well known for her activities in the county, district and state federation affiliations. She is currently first vice-president of the Laguna Hills Woman's Club.

Members planning to attend are asked to bring their own service and food of their choice to complement the pot-luck luncheon to be served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Greenway Will Hostess Party at San Gabriel Club

The San Gabriel Country Club will be the setting for a bridge luncheon being given by the president of The Woman's Club of Arcadia, Mrs. William W. Greenway, on Thursday, Feb. 25 starting at 12 noon. This is in lieu of her "Make a Dollar Grow" project.

All the members in attendance have made contributions to the ways and means chairman, Mrs. Edward G. Frank, for this specific project and these donations will cover the Music Award being given to Miss Linda Minkley, flutist; senior at the Arcadia High School who was chosen to represent The Woman's Club of Arcadia at the Verdugo District Fine Arts Festival held at the Highland Park Ebell Club.

It will also cover a contribution to Verdugo District to be combined with those from other clubs to form a Music Scholarship Fund to be awarded at the District Convention to be held at the Pasadena Hilton on April 22 and 23.

Donations for this project will also cover the contributions from The Woman's Club of Arcadia which will be combined with those from other clubs.

Among those attending will be: Mmes. Richard J. Nestler, Herbert W. Glidden, Dwight E. Jones, Fred L. Morgan, Harry G. Walker, Henrietta K. Loeffler, Charles F. Ganther, Michael Erickson, Joseph C. Parnham, Daniel K. Slattery, Homer W. Brown, Clifford E. Emberson, W. King LaRocque, Alby Foy, Lynn Volintine, Jack Mallon, Kenneth Fawcett, Harry J. Fawcett, Harry J. Schwarz, William S. Shepherd and Catherine Mundy.

THE WINNERS—The Woman's Club of Arcadia set an all-time high record at the Verdugo-Metropolitan District convention held recently in Los Angeles. Several First Places, and Sweepstakes were won by club chairmen. Department heads who won prizes for their reports are; Mrs. Gilbert Starkenburg (seated), president. Also Mmes. Richard J. Nestler, religion; Lyman Vollintine, Literature and Library Services; Lois Merton, International Affairs, and Charles Ganther, Federation chairman, California history and landmarks.

Woman's Club of Arcadia Sets Record at Convention

Mrs. Gilbert Starkenburg, president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, in her report at the Verdugo-Metropolitan District convention said, "The success of any organization is measured by the goals intelligently set and successfully carried out." The number of Sweepstakes and First Place awards carried off by the Arcadia club give evidence that the goals of the year were carried out.

Mrs. Lyman Vollintine, chairman of the Literature department, received a First and Sweepstakes for literature, and a First and Sweepstakes for Library Service.

At the beginning of the year Mrs. Vollintine chose as the theme for the department the annual Literature Day, a cultural community affair.

Mrs. Vollintine, who also served as historian for the club, received a Second Place award for her history.

Mrs. Charles Ganther, Federation chairman of California History, Landmarks and Cultural Heritage, and curator for the Arcadia Club, received a First Place and Sweepstakes for her report on history and cultural heritage.

Mrs. Lois Merton International Affairs chairman, won a First Place on report of her department. One of the outstanding meetings of the year was a luncheon where a film was shown of the first received a second place for her report on crime prevention.

Mrs. Douglas Schinke, chairman of Art and Pennies for Art, won a First Place and sweepstakes in these categories for the fourth consecutive year. In Mrs. Starkenburg's report she stated that "There is nothing that carries out the motto of creative involvement as does the annual art contest sponsored by the Woman's Club." Private and public school students from kindergarten through high school are involved and so are parents, teachers, club members and the community as a whole. Arcadia Woman's Club Honors Past Presidents

Wednesday, Jan. 7, at their first meeting of the New Year, the Woman's Club of Arcadia honored their past presidents. This is an annual occasion when memories of former years are recalled and friendships renewed.

Mrs. William W. Greenway, president, welcomed the honored guests, who were seated at the head table: Mmes. Charles W. Stewart, Harry W. Russell, Ray Allen Young, Charles F. Ganther, Bruce G. McAbery, Daniel J. Slattery, Alby R. Foy, Michael Erickson, Harry R. Lauber and Gilbert R. Starkenburg. President Greenway also qualifies as a member of the group, as she served the club as president three years ago.

Mrs. Henrietta K. Loeffler, American Heritage and Citizenship chairman, gave a patriotic tribute and led the membership in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

The inspirational was given by past president, Mrs. Harry W. Russell, who concluded her remarks with a personal code of ethics adopted many years ago — and a brief prayer.

"I'm going to try to live each day, each hour.

With all the force and all the loving power

Which the Creator gives me to apply.

I'm going to try.

I'm going to try to feel the life in me—

Is but a gift, which in my custody

Must be accounted for to one on high—

I'm going to try."

President Greenway thanked Mrs. Loeffler for the beautiful table decorations, Mrs. Anyta Doyle for the exquisite corsages which she prepared for each distinguished guest, and Mrs. Edward G. Frank, chairman of the ways and means committee, in charge of the luncheon.

Following the routine business of the meeting, Mrs. Harry J. Schwarz presented the speaker of the day, R. James Mortimer, a representative of the Diners Fugazy Travel of San Gabriel, who amazed, amused, and sometimes confused the ladies with his humorous subject, "Some Misconceptions About the English."

Mr. Mortimer explained that this appearance was his first appearance for a women's organization. He was born in London and moved to Los Angeles in 1961, and is an expert in presenting the eccentricities of the English language as well as the abuses and incongruities in our language.
